

Champagne Day Charter

PREAMBLE

Any individual or organisation wishing to post its event dedicated to Champagne on <https://champagneday.champagne.fr> (by Comité Champagne) undertakes to respect this charter.

RESPECT OF SANITARY RULES

By organizing an event to be published on the Champagne Day website, you undertake to respect the laws and health regulations in force in your country in the context of the fight against COVID-19. Under no circumstances an event will be accepted for publication on the Champagne Day website if it does not comply with these laws, and in particular social distancing rules.

RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION

It is important to follow the rules of responsible consumption for clients/visitors/guests participating in the Champagne Day event. Similarly, it is necessary to comply with the obligations linked to the service of alcohol and to be careful to the consumption of its clients/visitors/guests. Serving alcoholic beverages to a person showing signs of drunkenness is reprehensible.

Responsible consumption should be encouraged.
